

Polish Studies Initiative 2017 Scholarship Competition for Polish Language and Study Abroad Programs

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR SLAVIC AND EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES

The Polish Studies Initiative supports the study of Polish language and culture through summer intensive language, study abroad, and internship programs. Scholarships are available for both undergraduate and graduate students who are interested in pursuing more advanced training during Summer Semester 2017, with programs taking place during any of the Summer Term sessions eligible. Before submitting an application, interested students should consult the eligibility requirements. The amount of the award will range from $500-$1,000, depending on the stage of academic career and intended program. Scholarship recipients will be asked to provide brief updates and/or articles for inclusion in PSI newsletters and other promotional items. To download the application, visit: <http://slaviccenter.osu.edu/about/polish-studies/grants-scholarships>.

Eligibility

- 1) Applicants must be enrolled as OSU students at the time of application, as well as throughout the period of the award;
- 2) Undergraduate students must be in good academic standing with a GPA of 3.2 or higher and no less than a B+ in any Polish language coursework; and
- 3) Graduate students must be pre-candidacy and have no outstanding incompletes.

Eligible Programs

Students may submit scholarship applications for internship or study abroad programs that will occur between May 10 - August 6, 2017. Programs should be at least four weeks in length. For a list of study abroad programs, both in the U.S. and abroad, please see the Resources section on PSI's main webpage: <http://slaviccenter.osu.edu/about/polish-studies>.
