

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDIES FELLOWSHIP

UNDERGRADUATE 2017-18 COMPETITION

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR SLAVIC AND EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES

The Center for Slavic and East European Studies (CSEES) at The Ohio State University (OSU) is seeking applications for fellowships for Summer (SU) 2017 and Academic Year (AY) 2017-2018 under the U.S. Department of Education's Title VI Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship program. These fellowships are available to all full-time undergraduate students in any department who are pursuing a course of study that requires advanced foreign language and area studies training.

AY Fellowships: All AY fellows must be enrolled in at least one three-credit, classroom taught language course, at least one three-credit, classroom taught area studies course, and be considered a full-time student (12 credit hours) each semester during the tenure of the fellowship. Subject to approval, AY FLAS fellowships may be used for foreign language and area studies at other U.S. or foreign institutions. In order to gauge each student's language progress during the period of the fellowship, recipients are required to take a language proficiency entrance examination in the beginning of the AY and a language proficiency exit examination at the end of the AY. FLAS fellows are also required to meet with the FLAS Coordinator during the first week of each semester to discuss their program of study. In addition, all recipients are required to submit a post-fellowship online report to the U.S. Department of Education and participate in a biennial survey on their job placement and use of language skills for eight years following degree completion. The AY fellowship offers a stipend of $5,000 and tuition and instructional fee coverage up to $10,000. If a fellow fails to meet any of these requirements, money may be withheld and/or he/she will be required to return the money given to them, including payments for tuition and fees.

SU Fellowships: SU fellowships are awarded for intensive language study only. Intensive programs eligible for support must be equivalent to a full year of language study with at least 120 contact hours and at least six weeks of instruction at the advanced level, or at least 140 contact hours at the intermediate and elementary levels. Individualized instruction and audited classes are ineligible for a SU FLAS. SU fellowships may be used for intensive language study at institutions other than OSU, including study abroad. In such cases, applicants must provide itemized data on tuition, fees, and room and board expenses using the included Language Instruction Budget Estimate form. SU award recipients must register for a minimum of six credit hours of language courses during the award period. They are also required to meet with the FLAS Coordinator and take a language proficiency entrance and exit exam before and after their program of study, to submit a post-fellowship online report to the Department of Education, and to participate in a brief biennial survey on their job placement and use of language skills for eight years following degree completion. The SU fellowship awards a stipend of $2,500 for the summer semester and up to $5,000 for tuition and instructional fees. If a fellow fails to meet any of these requirements, money may be withheld and/or he/she will be required to return the money given to them, including payments for tuition and fees.

Eligibility: All applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.2 and no grade less than a B+ in all target language courses. Applicants studying Russian must be applying to study 3rd year Russian or above. For all other languages, applicants can apply to study 2nd year or above. FLAS awards are restricted to students who will not graduate before Spring Semester 2018. U.S. government regulations require all recipients of a FLAS travel award (available in some circumstances for summer fellows) to comply with the Fly America Act. Specifically, all tickets for overseas flights purchased with U.S. Department of Education funds must be on a U.S. carrier, unless the traveler is able to meet certain specific exception requirements. All travel requests must be pre-approved.

Eligible Languages: CSEES will award fellowships for the study of the following languages: Bosnian-Croatian-Serbian, Czech, Hungarian, Modern Greek, Polish, Romanian, Russian, Turkish, and Uzbek. Other languages will be considered by petition. Applicants are responsible for contacting appropriate language departments and establishing that their requested level of language instruction will be offered in 2017-18.

Priorities: In awarding these fellowships, priority is given to students who: a) study Less Commonly Taught Languages; b) intend to undertake advanced language study and who have not yet achieved native language competence; c) are interested in a career with the U.S. government or a professional field; and/or d) demonstrate financial need.

Please note that the awarding of FLAS fellowships is dependent upon the continued receipt of Title VI funding from the U.S. Department of Education.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applicants are eligible to apply for both SU and AY fellowships. Contact CSEES with any questions regarding your FLAS application. No consideration will be given to forms that are incomplete or improperly filled out. Any application received after 4:30PM on February 1, 2017 will not be considered.

A complete application consists of the following:

- 1) The completed Center for Slavic and East European Studies Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowship Application Form. The form is available online: <http://slaviccenter.osu.edu/funding/flas>;
- 2) An Advising Report showing all Ohio State coursework and/or official, up-to-date transcripts of all courses taken and grades received at other institutions. Applicants for both SU and AY only need to submit one set (We do not accept electronic transcripts!);
- 3) A one-page, single-spaced Statement of Intent (see AY and SU page 4);
- 4) Two letters of reference from faculty members familiar with the student's work, including language capability. Applicants for both SU and AY fellowships need only submit one set of references (We do not accept electronic letters of reference!);
- 5) Completed SU and AY Language Instruction Budget Estimate forms. It is the applicant's responsibility to provide program and budget information, as well as a contact, in the original FLAS application; and
- 6) A completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) application. To download, visit: <https://fafsa.ed.gov>. Electronic submission is recommended. FAFSA must be submitted to the office of Student Financial Aid (<https://sfa.osu.edu>) by February 1. Electronic submission is recommended.

There are two ways to submit an application:

- 1) By U.S. mail but all items must be postmarked by 4:30PM on Wednesday, February 1, 2017;

OR

- 1) In person to CSEES at the Office of International Affairs by 4:30PM on Wednesday, February 1, 2017.

APPLICANTS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO ACCESS

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, (P.L.93-380), allows a candidate for admission, employment, or receipt of honors to waive his/her right of access to confidential letters or statements written in his/her behalf if the recommendation is used solely for the purpose of admission, employment, or the receipt of honors and if the candidate, upon request, is notified of the names of all persons making such recommendations on his/her behalf. The University does not require that you make such a waiver as a condition for admission or award of fellowship. However, under the legislation you have the option of signing such a waiver as follows:

I hereby waive my right of access to this recommendation and any appropriate attachments which have been written by:

Name of Recommender: _____

in behalf of my application for award of a fellowship. This waiver is effective insofar as the recommendation is used solely for the purpose of award of fellowship.
